

20 Halsey St
Chelsea
May 24/70

My dear Sir,

I accept my sincere thanks for your kind invitation. The time mentioned is not very convenient as about that date I shall probably be in Europe; but I feel so very strongly the importance of cultivating an interest in the colonies that I should be willing to make some sacrifices to contribute

My note toward the good cause more especially in a centre of intellectual life like Oxford.

Should the invitation be sent to the Daddies the Club it would be sure to be understood that anything of value is to be understood the interest of more close union of the classes with the heart of the sons and with those who are of the cause whose work is not more and that. I would like what I might by reports but a man that I could not be interesting.

A letter addressed to me as above will come in the time June 1st. After that time my address will be 11 Gilman Place London
