

London, 25th May 1870

My dear Sir,

The arrangements are all completed for the delivery on Monday evening next, of the paper which you have kindly consented to give to the Royal Colonial Institute, and I now enclose half-a-dozen cards of admission for distribution among your friends. If you wish more than this, please let me know. I have sent cards to Professor Ramsay & Sir W. E. Logan.

If you can conveniently carry out your intention of having an abstract prepared, good Fowell, but I beg that you will not incumbrance yourself to do so.

I hope you will not be leaving town till after the 8th June, as the Canada Club holds their next dinner at Richmond on that day. It would give me much pleasure if you could join us then as my guest. I have written to Sir Mr Logan, to invite him.

I remain - Dear Sir
Yours sincerely
A. E. Newcombe
