My dear Principal

Unfortunate have I been in all ways. I specially hoped to be you & show you my mighty 'offensives'. Also to explain that I did write to the Lord Provost Edinburgh touching the Chair, & shall always be glad & earnest to help you in all things last all times.

I have been almost lost & overwhelmed in work & have still 400 drawings to make. I

Send this to the Genl. for London: though I know not of that address with cert.
