I know him to be a man of good family
and connections in
St. John's Island
I shall try to learn what is thought of him here;
but I can give the value and sweep of his benefaction make me think that we should do him any honor we can.

The Medical Faculty
have given up the idea of building this year, and the Professors in arts do not favor my little scheme for lectures to women, both of which things I regret.
Yours
W. Dawson

My dear Sir,
I had almost forgot to have seen
you in Montreal
at the time of the Exhibition. Not having had that pleasure,
I think it well
to mention that we are opening the report
with much pleasure
I enclose - 32 new Shall I say Day?

Students having entered
up to this date,
and I hope the number will reach 50, which will give us about 80 in all.
The new Scholarships have had great influence, and will have more next year.
Morse went to Mr McDonald, who has just paid $1250

for his ten Scholarships for this year; and I confess this has made me think again of your remark that it might be well to consider
his claims & the possibility of being a Governor. He is no
dull a young man,
but he is active
and intelligent and
