

Monkhead 14 Sept 1871.

Dear Sir

Mr Brebant sent for me at 2. Henderson was there, and admitted he had thrown the bricks.
He spoke foolishly, but as Brebant was sending him to jail (he not having his quarters) I took it on me to consent to his having till 11 AM tomorrow to find bail

which I think he will do -

He said he had determined not in any way to trouble you again, & I hope he will hold to this I mentioned to him that if he did trouble you I sh^d. advise your letting the law take its course -

Yes with haste
