Sir,

I trust you will excuse the liberty I take in writing to you, and also for the liberty I take in making the following request. -

With the letters of introduction I obtained to the Mess^{rs} Allan, I succeeded in obtaining employment in the Merchants Bank of Canada - and I remained there for some time - but the climate of Montreal did not suit me, and I was through ill health compelled to resign my appointment which the accompanying letter from Mr. J. Rar the Cashier will show you.

I left Montreal for Toronto, hoping to be able to get a post on one of the Railways in this part of the Country, having letters of introduction from the Hon. C. Dunkin to Mr. Cumberland of the Northern Railway of Canada, and also a letter to Mr. Muir of the G. W. R. who has promised to keep me in view.

But it is my intention to return to England as soon as I possibly can.

The request I would make, is to ask you if you would be kind enough to advance me £10.00 for a few days when it shall be returned to you, as I am receiving money from England, - but at the present moment I assure you I am quite out of money.

And I was anxious to get to Hamilton in order to see Mr. Muir, - or I should not have travelled so far from Montreal.

Should you be kind enough to grant me the above request I shall be extremely grateful, and the money shall be duly returned.

I would not have taken the liberty of making the request which I have done, had I known you I was quite without money and shall not receive the remittance for some days... but should you be kind enough to oblige me, the note shall be duly returned - and I am sure I shall be able to return the same before the end of the month.
 Hoping you will excuse the liberty I have taken in making the request which I have done.

I remain
Yours,
Wm. M. W.

W. M. W.
