

Wednesday May 31/71.

My Dear Sir

I send a press copy of the notes which have gone to Dana today. I think you will approve. I copied what you gave and added my own. Dana will probably make it an editorial note in his Miscellany.

as he spoke protesting therein our remarks at the last meeting of the Nat. Wild Socy.
We have a second meeting of our Nat Wild field-day Comtee this way. There is the permission of Madame Bureau. The arrangements for transportation will be made for this evening - You will be sorry to hear the death of poor Mr. Horace Smith. He died this morning after an illness of several weeks, but unexpectedly at the last. His funeral will be on day at 3. p. m.

I expect to be at the time tomorrow, but shall return to-morrow evening - Will you please to send Here notes or something of the same sort of nature?

faithfully yours,

W. Sterling Hunt.
