My dear Sir,

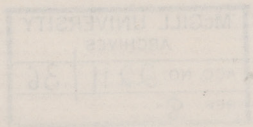

They do congratulate
you on your new position, which there will be
advantages both to you and to Canada.

I write now to ask you to look at a
little book of mine,
which perhaps might
be of use to you, as your books have been of use. It has many defects & is badly set up in some respects, but is useful as pointing to Canadian examples for evil and virtue. I am rather dissatisfied to find the present edition out of the way (though I have no pecuniary interest in it) with the view of doing something better; and it occurs

to me that in event
of your wishing to get up anything with Canadian examples,
an agents club

our material together
and make something useful. I thought was wiser to get something for my classes that would give them
species available here
to study; and perhaps the idea may be useful to you in this connection.

I shall hope some time to have a visit from you and to show

You what little the
are doing here

Sincerely yours
