

N^o 108 Mansfield Street
Montreal.

Saturday Afternoon.

Dear D^r Dawson,

I have just received the enclosed proof from the printer and I shall be much obliged if you will read it and make such alterations or corrections as you think fit, if it is not already to your mind. Have they given you your right style and title?

I have also to acknowledge a kind note received from you this afternoon on the subject of Professor Baldwin Smith. I will consult Mrs. Nelson before doing anything ~~and~~ ^{as} she took a personal part in the arrangements with D^r Hunt. If Professor J. Smith is willing to Lecture I anticipate no difficulty in finding him a place on our programme but we must of course keep our engagements with the Professors who have kindly promised us their assistance.

D^r. Hunt's name has given great satisfaction to many of our members and if he should fail to reach their expectations he will have only himself to thank.

Will you allow me to say that your name added to our staff has given me a feeling of rest and security which I have until now scarcely been able to feel in regard to our educational experiment. The few persons who know of your lectures share my satisfaction.

Believe me

yours faithfully

Lucy Simpson
