My Sir,

I have much pleasure in ~~informing~~ ^{stating} you that the ~~correspondence~~ I procure into and seeds of ~~of~~ ^{of} ~~your~~ ^{your} ~~phases~~ minute will ^{be} ^{under} ^{the} ^{care} ^{of} taken by Mr J. Macdonald M.A. Lecturer in ~~Geology~~ and Botany in ~~Albert~~ Col. Belleville, the most competent man
I know for such work
and who offers full dot a small sum as ~~expense~~

This is a superb example and most elegant
and convenient
and has excellent
general appearance
for these purposes.

Mr. Mason states that in addition to Woburn he can provide a large space or more of tubercles not ordinary
but more strong.

General Mr. Mason
address so that for any

My comm. with the Chief Secy of papers has what will probably be the best answer. Can you
then make the arrangement
