June 21/72

Gentlemen,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of yours of June 14th, and to state that I accept your offer & will publish my papers in the Leisure Hours and to divide the profits with me.

I enclose a letter to Mr Macneary asking the required permission to reprint the articles on Practical Man and to have the use of the engravings.

I shall at once
proceed to read
over and correct
and improve the text as it appeared in the J. H.; and shall send it to you as completed.

* I would suggest
as a title, that on next page; but if you see any objection, will be glad to modify it.
* ~~Grappes~~ The illustrations <sup>most</sup> be with leg but if printed by ~~Grappes~~ then can be on the papers here this can be

The Story
of
The Earth and Man;

In a series of sketches of the Geological Periods

With especial reference to the Origin and Succession of ~~Living~~ Life.

By J.W. Dawson, M.D., F.R.S., &c Principal & Vice-Chancellor of McGill University. — Author of "Archæia", "Acadian Geology", &c

Trusting that the arrangements thus made
will be meeting here
great approval

The Truly yours
J.W. Dawson

Copy to an ordinary order page to cut down and I shall thank you.
