My dear Sir

Yours very Kind letter of the 18th with the MS. of your article on Geology - was received this morning

I seize the very first moment I can command to acknowledge it.

I consider you

Please address me for the present at 116 North 11th St Philadelphia offer to count it

at ten pages - as extremely generous -
a generosity which I would not consent to accept if it were not that
my necessary expenses
are so heavy - and my means so limited -

I shall live in the hope of making a better return to you

some day — I assure you I appreciate very highly the honor you have done me in furnishing a contribution to my work —

I will try to induce my publisher to have the greater part of these illustrations engraved — I should like to insert all of them. — I will have him (for it is through him I make all my remittances to a distance) send you

the money at once

Will you have the kindness to acknowledge its receipt as soon as may be convenient.

With the highest respects

yours truly

J. M. Dawson F.R.S
