London, July 24 1872

E.C.

To Principal Dawson
Esq

Dear Sir,

Your second package of copy has duly reached us. We will get on with what we have received. We suppose the volume will make a Crown 8vo of from 4 to 500 pages. Enclosed you will find a copy of the Conditions on which the Religious Tract Society allow us the use of the papers (both series). There is no probability of the Chapters or Man being required for separate publication by the Society, for some time - if at all, but they have made the process much as a matter of form.

If we have a frontispiece - which is desirable - we think it will be best to use one of the full page illustrations as in Leisure Hour and print on it see page

We can get the book ready towards the end of the year so as to issue it in January next

Yours Dear Sir
Yours very truly
Hodder & Stoughton

P.S. We have made arrangements with our friend Mr. Clark (of Copp Clark & Co.) for a Canadian Edition & at his suggestion purpose putting on Mess^{rs}. Dawson's name on the title page - We shall endeavour to get some house in the States to take up the book.
