

Memo to Mr. Pease
- Dec 16th 1872

The following is I think a correct statement of the several "Companies" included in the Agreement

Alupoint area (Spatter) This is the original company about started the whole scheme
Peter Gentlemen Mr. Day & Mrs
$30,000

East River areas (Loraville and Jewell) Peter Gentlemen were only $30,000.

East River areas (Hematite and Slegany areas) Peter

Gentlemen, Mealey & McD
$20,000.

The latter paper is at the same volume
We were obliged to solve others in order to get The others in, and
because at that time
they had not faith in
the new rights of search
we were fed that this paper is quite as valuable as any of the others, and with the first paper we new have of one of the sleeping ones at least offer something in large quantity even in volume ~~All the unexploded paper has~~

on the other hand the expense made of you
of George then was
and the crews of the Company No 2 in what you will see no they
I have in control and what my reputation for
as the day the agreement expanses.

In letter to George
Mr P. mentions the little addition of knowledge of seems I say that in my judgment its present mind sore and my deputy estate that it may perhaps in a way and also for my per expenses

There was nothing with stealing was up to the time the snow fell. This last week has not yet come to hand and I do not wish to care any followers helps; but I have just been ~~sent~~ in the trip with this the speech was ~~in~~ paper news ~~was~~

and a printed ~~with~~ securities

may further ~~mean~~ that ~~only~~ lets at the scale of ~~our~~ ^{to see} ~~value~~ ^{being taken} and of all ~~parts~~ ^{of paper and} ~~of~~ ^{the} ~~parts~~ most of the ~~value~~ ^{of} ~~our~~
