FROM

To

Dr Dawson

McGill College

Dear Sir

I have just received your note addressed to my brother. Why you should have addressed him I have no idea. At any rate I am very sorry you did not await my answer to your note of y'day before going to the trouble of repacking the two barrels. However, as it is done there is no object in saying more. I much regret (as I can now see when the fault lies) that the stupidity of my Charlottetown friend or of the Steamboat Coy should have caused you this petty amoyance. As I have no doubt, as you say, that the Oysters are in a rather better condition now than when received by you I trust you will allow me to pay charges of the whole to cover this as well as petty charges & expenses. & to enclose $4²³ amt of Steamers & returned herewith

Yours truly,

B Dawson

You have divined where I wish I have the two parcels sent
