Monday

My dear Sir

I also wrote to Mr Abbott and I am quite sure that he would scarcely act as you suggest -

I asked him to see Pentice & cable me if he had any advice -

I do not think that it would be safe to write Mr Addickly in answer to their letter - unless in a very guarded way - It would not do to tell them of the position we are in with Pentecost as it might weaken his hands but the same time not doing so - (if your letter found its way into Pentecost's hand) - it might be inferred that we place no faith in our protest -

I would allow the matter to remain as it is - at all events for the present

Yours truly
Henry C. May
