My dear Sir

I enclose for your information Copies of papers mailed on 20 Inst to Mr. Barnett in reply to his letter of 19th ult. We hope Mr. Prentice will soon be here to look after matters himself.

I have kept the enclosed Newspaper slip beside me for some time. Could you procure a copy of the essay referred to or was it published. if not or if not readily accessible please do not give ^{yourself} the least trouble as it is of no importance.

With kind regards I remain
Yours Truly
