

Dodds

Orange N. J.

Aug. 20
1874

My dear Dr. Dawson;

You must already have anticipated the reason of my long delay in replying to yr. favor of July 20. This is my season of vacation - & I have been among the Peripatetics. Yr. letter has overtaken me at my country home in this place.

The time mentioned by you will suit our convenience. It would.

Seminary. I can only say, of the request - is from the Trustees, Seminary, that on this belie to do any thing that is practical & convenient & especially that be approved by you.
I wrote to our own Seminary, & to the friends of the Section this - the late Prof. Morse - would make it proper, I think, that the same should be & be finally made that the same be originally prepared for our own constitution, & that you do it might be repeated. I don't whether it will be safe, just - as things stand about the way, to commit - by way to the. Now to at - Proctor's I'll be possible if the - the has not - but - seen de - in my judgment; be better to have the first Lect. if possible, on Tuesday Ev. as Wednesday Ev. in Church might - in our City. We will understand, if it pleases you, that we will have the six Lect.^s within the two weeks - defined by yourself. A little later on my return to the City, we can fix the day days of the week. It will be desirable to have our Lect.^s in the Evenings. -

In regard to your invitation from Princeton, you do not mention whether it comes from the College or the also the one seen, of our disagreeable you may be certain in the Hall of the young men: At the same time, they accompany with a large number of young men besides there is our country. So, profaneness is

As I wish ~~to that~~ you for the day in my hands at the time of the... I see with due regard to the... I see to be the... I see... I see to be how one... concerning you, at the same time, I see to be to be... I see to be... I see to be