Dear Dr Danson

Milords of McMill who know something of English Schools - perhaps I shall say the English Public Schools - sometimes hardly say, that boys who have gone through Ston or Harrow or Rugby and, at their time of coming out, better educated than those who come out as B. A's of McMill.
I for one would be glad to hear this question - for it is one - publicly discussed by yourself at some suitable time

Yours faithfully
Geo W Pagdon
