My dear Sir

I have just got in my printer's account - and I find that from a misapprehension of instructions he has charged postage on all copies of my volumes and Hydrology sent out by him - which my scheme was that no legal binding they should be delivered any price post free at the publisher's price I find you have then been charged 1/ in one - which I have no means of returning but in postage stamps - which I do however hope that you may be able to make use of them in answering letters to friends to be posted in this country

I have just published a second volume of the series - and I am going to prep with a third I am My dear Sir
Yours faithfully
Rev. Principal Dawson
