Dear Sir

Permit me to thank you for your kind suggestion in regard to
M. Le Metayer Masselin.

I will endeavour to act upon it as soon as possible.

M. Le Metayer is a man of culture and at the same time of true evangelical spirit whose influence for good among our dependent and numerous French protestants cannot fail to be very great. I regard him as truly constituting one of the pillars of our French cause, Mr. Chénier being the other. His influence among his compatriots is great and he is universally respected.

The French Protestant Revival Society owes its organization to his assistance desire to alleviate with

- your suffering, much of which is the result of persecution. If in the midst of your many labours you can find a moment to say a good word for the Société de bienveillance des Protestants pendant la langue française de la ville de Montréal it might be the means of doing much for as worthy a charity as has ever been before the history the public. Please this day note. The Board has put me in the position father & a large and numerous and in the main deserving family. My shoulders are heavy and I am thus compelled to rest a corner of it upon the feet stay me kindly.

Remember I wait.

With thanks for your interest in all the Melrose Remains

Dear Sir
Yours very faithfully
John Campbell
