My Dear Sir

I regret that you should not have received the thanks of our family sooner for your kind
thought in lending
copies of your work
"The Dawn of Life"
dedicated to the memory of my uncle Sir William Logan. My Aunt Mrs.

Gorner to whom they were addressed was taken ill in Edinburgh and died there the end of last month, and it was not until the family returned to Castle Malgown for the funeral that they received your books.

I know what a sincere pleasure it would have given Mrs Gower to have read your work, as she took such an interest in all that concerned
her brother & felt so deeply the kindness of his friends, I can only now add the grateful thanks of his Williams'
surviving sisters Mrs

Stewart & Mr. Ker with that of myself
