My Dear Sir William

14 Aug

1893

I am as yet prohibited from writing with "mine own hand" but I can not help making an exception & acknowledging Y<sup>r</sup> letter of 31st July as soon as I was able.

Y<sup>r</sup> warm congratulations move my most grateful feelings. also thank Waddy Dawson please to tell <sup>him</sup> that I still daily read Murray "with Ch<sup>r</sup>." & keep her note therein as a memento.

Only that I know You ask God I sh<sup>d</sup>. deeply regret Y<sup>r</sup> resignation of McGill. God grant You Years of usefulness for Ch<sup>r</sup>. & for Science - even more than in the past.

My anxiety is to know wherefore God has drawn me back from the gates of death. & to obtain grace to glorify Him. pray for me faithfully Y<sup>r</sup> in Ch<sup>r</sup>.
