EDITOR'S ROOM.

2nd Sept. 1893.

Dear Sir:-

In accordance with your request of a few days ago, I herewith return you the letter that you were kind enough to send us. Your writing it in the ^{form of a} letter was a cause of some embarrassment to us, because, from the nature of The Forum, we can publish nothing but a set article or argument. I regret, that since you declined to write such an article, you took the trouble to write the letter, although I beg to assure you that I appreciate your kindness in the matter. My only regret is that you did not see fit to make a set article for our pages.

Very sincerely yours,

Sir William Dawson,

Dear Sir,

I have just received your letter of the 17th inst. in relation to the article in the 15th issue of the Journal, and am glad to hear that you are interested in the article. I have no objection to your using the article in your paper, but I should like to see a copy of the article as it appears in your paper. I have no objection to your using the article in your paper, but I should like to see a copy of the article as it appears in your paper.

Yours truly,
