Sept 27/76

My dear Mr Maclean

Now that the matter of the Kent chain has been placed in your hands, I think I ought ~~to say something about a matter of fact which may be of importance in the matter.~~ to be made before engaging ourselves to remove the Director's difficulties in the matter. ^{of any result except} There seems to ~~be~~ ^{believe} that there is a strong feeling abroad in the Forum about my read but agreement on the college and the head work,

I do not know when the case differently has but much of the facts which have been stated since you to the committee in London has been mostly treated and that a ~~committee~~^{committee} of some of its members ^{should be} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~body~~ separate its members ^{and} ~~at the~~ ^{at the} ~~meeting~~

We cannot afford to lose ground as present and we shall certainly

course of studies beyond any further the part of ~~new~~ ^{new} of course of instruction also will know if any thing can be done with regard to the work

Yours
 J. W. D.
