Dear Sir,

I have asked all the Head & Second Masters in the employ of the Board, except those of the Panet St School where a school is at present in operation, whether or not they would be willing to undertake evening schools ~~and~~ and have received the following replies.

Mr Wm Shubrick St School;
"work already sufficiently crowded."

Mr Pearson Brit Han<sup>n</sup> School;
"too much exhausted at the close of the day."

Mr Lafive Brit Han<sup>n</sup> School;

has private teaching in the evenings.

Mr Barwick, Dorchester St School, finds his daily work sufficient.

Mr Powell and Mr Stewart of the Ann St School, find their strength sufficiently taxed with their daily work.

Mr Humphrey, Royal Arthur School; "would like to take charge of an evening class."

Messrs Duncan and Parsons
St St Charles no reply as yet.

Yours truly

B. J. Dobson -
