P.S. I hope the bond of the pay of the labor
that annoys you
& message
will be paid
of the office with me that it
had better
be let alone
for the present.

Worcester 5 May 77.
My dear Principal,

Your card
of the 16th, reach me duly this evening. Thanks.

I forgot also to see Raper about the form of the minutes.
Would you ask him to photo over his entries, if he can,
till I see him on Saturday;
as I count on doing. Should I be headed off from copying as I don't mean to be, I will send him the Parliamentary any form of entry.

We got out very comfortably; only desperately tired.
With my wife's best love to you, & all other due regards, Yours most truly,
Richard Jenkins.
