

London
May/89

Dear Sir William

I have to thank you for your kind note of yesterday in which you mention a sum which seems to me much too high for any writing I have done this winter -

There has really been much less this year & I should feel amply paid by a much less amount.

I should be glad to know as soon as any arrangement can be made about next year. From the large number of morning classes in the new Calendar I think I may be needed more than before - I must apologize for troubling you on this matter, but my excuse is that a lady whose services we would like to secure to take my place here if necessary, is in treaty for another appointment and we would be sorry to lose her -

Yours faithfully,
Helen Gardner

47 Victoria Street
May 18th 1877.