

Dunker

Knowlton, 1 Sep.
77.

My dear Principal,
You last written from Gloucester, reached me duly. I had to let a rail pass, because not sure as of some matters affecting my movement. But as I now know I can't get into town this week or next, all I can do is to throw myself on the alternative, & beg you to come out & see us. I would have come in, if I could;
wishing on many accounts to be in town a few days; & besides, thinking you have so much on hand that coming out may trouble
you. I leave on Monday for Court at Redford, to be home some time Wednesday. The Tuesday after my Criminal Term opens at Sweetbush, it is likely to keep me a week or more. The last Tuesday of the month, I hold Court at Waterloo. And in fact, I am not sure I can even in between the Criminal Term & it.

I want very much indeed, to see you. Lynch is back; but so poorly I have not yet seen him.
Any of the later days of the week would do for you coming out; especially, if you can find us Sunday & Monday. You might go in Monday evening or Tuesday morning, from Sweet-bush. I am not sanguine of getting Day. He packed home very poorly.

In haste,

Yours most truly,
Wm. L. McKim.
