Nov. 19. 1877

Dear Sir + Rev.

I have the pleasure to inform you of your appointment as a member of Executive Committee of Int'l S. Cong. to fill a vacancy occasioned by the removal of Rev. Jas. Chapman of Quebec. who was appointed at Balt. The appointment of yourself to fill the Com. is by the voice of said Committee. Had there been time to do so before sending out the Call for the Convention I should have written for your acceptance of the position. but inasmuch as delay was deemed detrimental and I was assured of your hearty sympathy with the work. I have presumed

To attach your name to the Printed Announcement, Copy of which please find herein - Very soon I shall send you in common with others of the Committee an Outline Programme for your criticism and suggestions, as also for names of Speakers, Etc. - Trusting to hear from you soon approving my course in thus printing your name.

I remain

Yours sincerely
W. E. Seale, Jr
