Dear Sir, Montreal

In accordance with your wishes I enclose the printers proof of your address. I have just received a letter from the Asst-Secy of the Parent Socy in England. He tells me they had a good meeting; but strange to say their attendance this year was also small on account of the weather. Of course we know that the God of the Bible is the God of the weather; but being a man I cannot help regretting that more did not hear your address & that of Mr Ross. Our Directors feel very grateful for your kindness in coming to address us & I must beg to thank you for all the trouble you are taking to give us a good report.

Believe me dear Sir
Very truly
Yours
R. Baldwin

I have just received a letter from the Secretary of the Parent-Board in reference to the letter we had a good meeting, but strange to say their attendance this year was also small on account of the weather. Of course we know that the God of the Bible is the God of the weather; but being a man I cannot help regretting that more did not hear your address & that of Mr. Lee. Our Directors feel very grateful for your kindness in coming to address us & I would beg to thank you for all the trouble you are taking to give us a good report.
