Dear Sir,

We have your note of 13th. Inst. from Nova Scotia, for which we thank you. If it will suit you to undertake the examination of the Miller Brushaw lands at any time during next month, we should like to have you do, as our English friends would rather send some one out than accept any other opinion than yours which can be obtained in this Country.

We have had the pleasure of seeing D Harrington, to whom we have mentioned what we have written above, which he said he would communicate to you - We shall be glad to have
