Montreal 10th Sept 1778

Honored Sir

I beg leave to return my sincere thanks for the opinion you have given attached to the Ms^{op} which I received this morning; I will jealously guard the privacy of that opinion, but will not promise to keep my own opinions a secret, neither have I time to judge of the difference between other schools and Creeds relative to Gods works; I am justified in taking them as I find them, with one foot in the grave and the other following I would like to tell the world of the love of God to all he has created and made; and if I had ability I would also tell of his love to mankind or the human race by redeeming the world from Sin and Cruelty through the precept and example of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ without respect to any sect or dogmatic Creed.

Your opinion has given me more strength of mind and if I live a little longer will endeavour to turn it to good account and remain

Honored Sir

Your most obed^t humble servant
Alex^r Robertson
