My dear Sir,

I write now simply to acknowledge the receipt of your additional M.S. and of the box of electros. The amount for the latter, perhaps we had better settle, when the whole M.S. is to hand — We have not yet presented the order to Hodder & Stoughton for the other plates, but will do so when the book is forwarded for publication — Meanwhile, with much respect, I am

Faithfully y^{ours}
