Ans. Guest

L. Halsey Esq

Dec^r 22nd

Dear Sir,

I trust this will find you and your family in good health

& that you have favorable

news from your absent

ours.

I hope you will pardon

the liberty of writing to ask if you would be so kind as to procure an introduction for a Mr.

Chas. Sanson to Professor Selwyn whom he is anxious to know, hoping to get some employment through him. He is the son of an old Indian officer, (Col. Sanson) is now in Canada, engaged on a railway, but wishes to get under government. He is not a personal friend but his family are the most intimate friends of my best earthly one.

Knowing the interests
you take in young men and acting on Mr. Thurgood's advice, I have not hesitated to write to ask this favour and again ex-

-treating you to excuse me, at the same time wishing you the compliments of the Season. I am,
dear Sir,

Very sincerely yours
Anne Gess

To J^r Dawson.
