

Syracuse University,

Syracuse, N. Y., March 31 1879.

Prof. J. W. Dawson, L.D.,
Principal of McGill University.

Dear Sir,

You may not be wholly unacquainted with the Thousand Island Park, so called, a place of summer resort on an island near Gananoque & Clayton in the St. Lawrence. It is proposed to have a number of lectures on subjects of a semi scientific & religious character there from July 16 to July 22, probably, two daily. Such a series of lectures have been given for two summers past & they have been well attended & successful. The people who are there are usually about equally from both sides of the river.

Haven
Mar/29

Spencer Pennington
1/10

& the meetings are exceedingly pleasant.
We do not pay for the lectures farther than to pay the cost of travel from home to the place & back & of course take care of the lecturer during the week of the meeting if he choose to stay so long.

Would you be willing to give us one, or perhaps two lectures on any subjects you might choose, on these terms, next summer? We would do our best to make it pleasant for you, & I hope it would lead many to become still farther acquainted with you & your books.

Very truly yours,
E. D. Haven.