March 24th 1879

My dear Dr Dawson

Six months ago when asked for an opinion as to who would be a good man for the Chair of Civil Engineering in the Military College, I named Mr Carr & Jarvis.
Had I known that your son would be an applicant, I should have hesitated, for if he has anything of the ability of his brother George he would adorn any Chair that he offered to fill. I heard only the other day that Mr W. J. Dawson was an applicant. If at any future time my word can be of the slightest use in his favour, you may depend on me -

With kindest regards to Mrs. Sawson Believe me

Ever sincerely yours
Duke Laub
