My Dear Dr Dawson

My friend, Mr W. B. Bridgman Simpson, who has given me most valuable help as Secretary of our Newsboys Home, will be sojourning in Montreal
for some months, in charge of the Trust & Loan Company's
business.

I shall feel grateful
if you can give him

the centre of your home circle. You will find him in accord with you on the most important
of all subjects. We shall miss him here in more than one
good work.

With all kindest
Greetings to Mr Dawson.

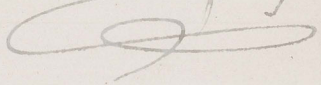

Believe me

Faithfully Yours

Dan. Wilson
