

Macfarlane,

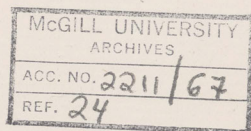

Wyandotté, Mich.

11th April 1879.

Dear Sir

I am in receipt of your note of the 8th inst.

I shall be very willing to attend the next meeting of the National History Society to read and defend my paper,
if allowed to do so, and if the Editors of the Cratunalist accept it for publication. I do not think however that it would be at all intelligible without the quotations to which you refer, and it seems to be impossible to discuss Mr Selwyn's paper without some personal references. I shall however endeavour to make these as inoffensive as possible.

Yours truly
Thomas Macfarlane

Principal Dawson
McGill College.

P.S. Please advise me as regards the decision of the Council.
