My dear Sir,

am who
ally
and-

Allow me

to ask your attention to the enclosed Bill,

the amt of which was exacted of

Mrs Dawson at

St Octave Station

for a barrel of

flour and a

barrel of groceries

forming part of her baggage on her way to Metis.

I accompanied Mrs
Dawson to Point Levis, and gave the barrels in question in charge to the Grand Trunk Baggage
Master, who did not object to them

not being of large amount, as we had sent our bedding & heavy articles beforehand
by freight train.

I regard the included not only
as an overcharge
but as a wrong

inflicted on Mrs Dawson in taking possession of her property, without her consent, and ^{and takes advantage of her helplessness and} putting her to trouble ^{and} and inconvenience. I think therefore that I have a right ^{at least} to ask for repayment

of the amt of the enclosed, and shall be much obliged if you will make this demand in my name, or inform me who is responsible that I may make it myself
