My dear Sir Charles

I have been requested by the students & writers of Little Metes to transmit to you the enclosed petition and to ask your kind attention to it. The facts are shortly there. Little Metes is now one of the most important watering places on the Lower St. Lawrence; but there is no Little Metes station on the Intercolonial. The so-called "Metis" station is really that for Grand Metis, 8 miles distant and of less importance and the nearest station is "St Otaie" station, which should be named "Little Metis" station, and removed to the point where the Little Metis road crosses the track. Such a Little Metis station would accommodate

Not only the people

but also those of Sandy Bay and other places as far as Matane, and would be one of the most important
stations on the road.
