

Toronto: Jan. 7. 2nd / 1880.

Dear Sir,

I called on Mr. Hill, the other day, respecting the subject of our conversation, and not finding him at home I left a letter for him. I have just received the enclosed reply. Mr. McDonald's specimens, as I suspected, were never exhibited; and, as you will see by Mr. Hill's letter, nothing seems to be known of their whereabouts.

In haste,

Very truly yours

Edw. J. Chapman

Dr. Dawson
