

HARVARD UNIVERSITY,
CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

18 Mar. 1880

My dear Sir:

I hoped, when I first received your kind invitation of March 8th, that I should be able to accept it; but as the time draws near, I perceive that it will not be possible for me to be in Montreal on the 2^d of April.

Thanking you for your cordial invitation to the banquet, and wishing you a very agreeable and profitable reunion of graduates, teachers, and governors, I am with great regard

Very truly yours
Charles W. Eliot
