

Village Richelieu
15th Sept 1880

My dear Dr Dawson

I have been for some days past absent from home - I received the programme for the 21st and will endeavour to attend to my part of the ceremony altho I wish you could have done without me - I do not see any mention in the proceedings

P.S. I have just received your card - Many thanks for your kind invitation but Mrs Bay has decided that she will not go in for the ceremony on the 21st and I promised Mrs Baynes that I remained overnight I would go to him C. D. D.

proceedings, of thanks to Mr Redpath but that I suppose will be included in your address —

I send to-day or tomorrow my resignation of member-ship in the Council of Public Instruction — I hope you have settled upon a successor —

Have Mr. Dawson and your family returned to town If so give our kind regards and believe me

Yours sincerely

W. D. Day
