

Hartford, Sept. 28. 1880.
Dear Dr Sawson,

It is a great disappointment to learn that we can not be favored with your lectures the coming season. Perhaps in the course of 1881, you may visit our city in furtherance of the common cause.

A pamphlet and circular go to you by the next mail, & when we issue a catalogue, a copy will be sent you.

Very respectfully
and sincerely yours,
Wm Thompson.
