

V. R. 7th Jan'y 1881

Dear Dr Dawson

I received the sad intelligence of our friend's death this afternoon in Town and found your telegram on my return. I met Mr Lynch (the Soli Genl)
in the car coming out and he informed ^{me} that it was the work of

joyfully that the funeral cortege should be formed at the College and that he had been looking for you in the afternoon but unsuccessfully — I told him I would write to you this evening but that he might consider it certain that the desired arrangements would be made —

He requested that you would communicate directly with him about it by telegraph — will you please do so — I shall go

Go in Tuesday Morning
With all the kind-wishes of the ^{Season} for the health and happiness of yourself and those dear to you for many long years to come - I remain

Yours sincerely
