Dear Dr. Dawson,

I thank you very much for the copy of the University Lecture which I have just read. And now I am anxious to obtain several copies (I do not think 100 would be too many) to assist Mr. Houghton in his work in England. Lest you should not know what that work is I enclose a circular, which will, I think, explain ~~of~~ itself. I am sorry to send you a soiled copy but I am unable to obtain any other just now. Will you kindly send word by the bearer whether or no the Lectures are for sale, and if so where they may be had. As today is Mail day I should like to get these and send them at once. Mr. Houghton went to England in September and is to return by the first week in May so that there is no time to be lost.

I have written in such a haste that I have not said what ought to have come first - that the Lecture is exceedingly interesting and that it ought to have the widest possible circulation in the interests of us all.

With kind regards and many thanks,

I remain

Yours truly

Lucy Simpson
