My dear Sir,

Since receipt of your favor of Jan'y 31st, I have read
Wallace's Island Life,
and have made notes
of it. It would I think afford a good
basis for the discussion of the question of Geographical climates.

Cretaceous & Marine Life
Penn State & Pa. Acad. Sci.

and the Distribution of Animals and Plants?

and I think I can easily write a series
what through popular exposition of that subject, so as to place it in a somewhat
more sweeping light
than that of Wallace.
I would require however to have something like

Twenty pages & do justice to it if you can afford that much, and might have it ready say
by the middle of March. Please drop me a postal card
to say if this will suit your purposes

Truly yours

power to satisfy you.
