

Dear
June/87

I seize the first moment heartfelt thanks for the
"life" which you were so kind to give me,
and of haughty books, it would be a oasis in the desert, and all the more valuable it is. I sometimes try to read of Geology myself, and exult when I see, that it will be perused so as to really and vigorously and felicitously set forth, it must in and lines of those far pared, as a halo and elements of thought, which should have been disunera in Theology.

I shall heartily con-
in public and in private be studied by every every christian teacher,

Your last chapters in very special pleasure relative testimonies all in — the embodied Ideal the Christ of God. Be-chinese with several of which I mentioned to you to add, I shall ever think religious philosophers, pro-rank of such. Cardinal

P.S. Please feel free to make any use of this book whenever, wherever, may possibly benefit it causing no inconvenience.

take an epoch in the thoughts whom it has been the successful attempt to reconcile by, humanly speaking, never used it almost marks a new number of the work, both late, as one which should be, and is indispensable to particular has given me by its suggestiveness, and its curpaining towards, as centering

- man at his Chimney - letter still, it has proved con-and claps, as to the perplexities In conclusion I beg leave by its learned author as another incidentally added to the foremost by Thine, Rufus S. Plase

1320 Chestnut st. Phila. Pa. U. S. A.
Room 8

June 5th 1881

Prof. Dawson }
Mc Gill College }
Montreal }

Dear Sir,

at leisure to return my copy of your "Origin of Kind as to forward to Mr.

Amid the ceaseless stre comes to me much as

The volume will prove to me, because (as you
to teach the first principle

I feel that I do not in so far as the book I ha take in what is so thoughtful