

Dear Dawson -

I enclose a copy from the Herald of today. - Who supplied the information I cannot imagine? -

It is of course greatly erroneous in some particulars, notably about half the funds in bank

I think that I must give a partial contradiction & advice in case it gets into the evening papers -

Can you call & confer
Yours faithfully

Dear
June 23

Dear Mother
I received your letter of the 20th of today. - The information the information I received regarding it is of course greatly concerned in some part of the matter, and that about half the funds in bank I think that I should give a partial letter later & advise in case of you in the current letter -
Can you call & see
